DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claims 1-5 and 10-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. In particular, independent claims 1 and 10 require that "at least a portion of the plate spacer between the fixed opposite ends is in contact with the surface of the substrate". This language suggests that applicant had possession (at the time of the invention) of embodiments in which only a part of the plate spacer was originally in contact with the first substrate and embodiments in which all of the plate spacer was originally in contact with the first substrate. It does not appear, however, that applicant has support for embodiments in which only a part of the plate spacer is in contact with the first substrate. In particular, Figures 1A and 3A appear to depict the entire surface of the plate spacer in contact with the first substrate. Furthermore, the original disclosure simply states, "it is merely in contact with the rear plate 1 and not fixed thereto" (Page 31, Paragraph 124). The original disclosure fails to suggest that a part of the plate spacer is not originally in contact with the first substrate and as such, the language is seen to constitute new matter. It is suggested that applicant amend the claim language in lines 5+ to simply read "that the plate spacer between the fixed opposite ends is in contact with the surface of the first substrate".

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 1-5 and 10-14 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 1st paragraph, set forth in this Office action. As correctly argued by applicant, the method of US '715 fails to form a space between the plate spacer and the first substrate after the process of fixing the plate spacer to the first substrate and before the process of bonding the first substrate and the second substrate together. The "space" depicted in Figure 6 of US '715 is a result of using a spacer that is warped and raised at its longitudinal center (Column 11, Lines 40+). Thus, the "space" formed in US '715 occurs simultaneously with fixing the plate spacer to the first substrate, not after such a step. Additionally, that portion of the spacer that is not in contact with the first substrate in Figure 6 was not initially in contact with the first substrate as required by the claimed invention.

Conclusion

4. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within

Art Unit: 1733

TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
